Featured Employer: Institute for Health Metrics

The Institute for Health Metrics and Evaluation at the University of Washington monitors global health conditions and health systems, as well as evaluate interventions, initiatives, and reforms and as such provide high quality and timely information on health so that policymakers, researchers, donors, practitioners, local decision-makers, and others can better allocate limited resources to achieve optimal results. We aspire to make available to the world high quality information on population health, its determinants, and the performance of health systems. We seek to achieve this directly and by catalyzing the work of others, and by training researchers and policymakers.

Post-Bachelor Fellowship (Job ID 13786)

The Post-Bachelor Fellowship is a structured program where individuals can apply their knowledge and passion to help advance the field of health metrics and accelerate global health progress. This fellowship provides a unique opportunity for recent college graduates with strong quantitative skills to train with faculty and senior researchers on a variety of global health projects.
Deadline to Apply: 11/29/09

The Career Center is pleased to announce Career and Internship Connections (CICs) 2010!!

Washington DC * Los Angeles, CA * New York, NY * Chicago, IL * Boston, MA

What is a CIC?

Career and Internship Connections are off-campus career and interview fairs scheduled during winter break, so you have the time to travel to the cities you might be interested in. There are a couple of different ways to navigate the fairs, the best and most proactive one is to register, upload your resume, and APPLY for positions by the November 30th deadline. You may then be selected for interviews by employers, select a time and be interviewed at the event.

INTERNSHIPS AND FULL-TIME JOBS

These innovative off-campus events allows students to network and interview with companies in New York, Washington DC, Chicago, Boston, Los Angeles. This is the 11th year of the consortium events (it includes 15 other schools). Last year's events boasted over 200+ employers in EVERY type of field.

Registering for the events early means you'll get updated information on the events, employers attending, and jobs posted. You can also create search agents to send you postings in particular cities and/or fields.

Visit <http://www.rochester.edu/careercenter/students/cic/index.html> and click on the registration tutorial for complete registration details. This year's PASSWORD TOKEN is "cic2010".

CICs 2010 DATES:

Washington, DC - January 4th
Los Angeles - January 5th
New York - January 6th
Chicago - January 7th
Boston – January 8th

Registration is now open. Visit <http://www.rochester.edu/careercenter/students/cic/index.html> and click on the cities to get the lists of companies registered thus far. As always, the Career Center is ready to assist as you create resumes, navigate the CIC web system and prepare for CIC interviews.
