

Hot Jobs, Cool Internships Newsletter
Engineering
January 29-February 4

You will be receiving this newsletter every Friday. We'll also be posting all three newsletters on our website at <http://www.jhu.edu/careers/students>.

Featured Employer: Google Inc.

Google's mission is to organize the world's information and make it universally accessible and useful. As a first step to fulfilling that mission, Google's founders Larry Page and Sergey Brin developed a new approach to online search that took root in a Stanford University dorm room and quickly spread to information seekers around the globe. Google is now widely recognized as the world's largest search engine -- an easy-to-use free service that usually returns relevant results in a fraction of a second.

Come hear Google Engineer Carlos Gomez-Uribe give a Tech Talk on February 3rd. The event is open to Computer Science, Mathematics, general engineering students and anyone else who is interested.

When: Wednesday, February 3, 2010 at 5pm

Refreshments will be served starting at 6:00pm

Where: Mattin Center, Room 160

How: RSVP to this event by viewing the Event on your J-Connect calendar. RSVPing helps us know how many people to order food for, but everyone is welcome!

We are requesting that students interested in internship opportunities submit their resumes and unofficial copies of their transcripts to <http://www.google.com/jobs/students/us/internships/> by Friday, February 5th 2010. We are also still taking applications for full-time positions online at www.google.com/students
