

John 6 – A Hard Teaching of Jesus

January 16, 2008

Consider John 6:25-65 in its context.

What is Jesus saying in this passage?

What is “hard” about what Jesus said?

How do vv. 61ff constitute an answer to the disciples’ concern about the “hard teaching”?

What does it mean that “bread [came] down from heaven?”

What does it mean to “eat the flesh” and “drink the blood” of Jesus?

What does this passage teach about “eternal life?”