

Hot Jobs, Cool Internships Newsletter

Humanities and Social Sciences

April 3- April 9

To make sure that you're in the know about the job and internship opportunities that might interest you the most, the Career Center is re-designing its newsletter format. Instead of one master newsletter, we'll be sending out targeted newsletters based on three focus areas: Social Sciences and Humanities, Natural Sciences, and Engineering. You will be e-mailed the newsletter that's the best fit based on your major. We'll also be posting all three newsletters on our website at <http://www.jhu.edu/careers/students>.

HIGHLIGHT: Federal Service Student Ambassadors Program

Great PAID opportunity for students interning with federal agencies!

The program:

The Federal Service Student Ambassadors program produces a corps of college students ready to actively promote public service following their completion of a federal internship in Washington, D.C.

Who is eligible?

Any student interning with a federal agency in Washington, D.C. this summer (2009) who will be returning to their campus for the 2009-2010 school year is eligible to apply.

Bonus for students:

This is a paid, year-long position, with a stipend of $2,200 and an added $300 stipend for expenses and materials.

Students can apply for the Federal Service Student Ambassadors program at <http://www.makingthedifference.org/ambassadors>. For more information, please contact ambassadors@ourpublicservice.org.
