

Hot Jobs, Cool Internships Newsletter
Humanities and Social Sciences
November 20 – November 26

You will be receiving this newsletter every Friday. We'll also be posting all three newsletters on our website at <http://www.jhu.edu/careers/students>. Due to the holiday break, there will be no newsletters either on Monday or Friday next week. Enjoy your time off and newsletters will resume the week of November 30, 2009.

Featured Employer: McCormick & Company

McCormick is a global leader in the manufacture, marketing and distribution of spices, herbs, seasonings, specialty foods and flavors to the entire food industry. From our first products in 1889 to the innovative spices, seasonings and flavorings we now offer, McCormick has always brought our customers and consumers the best ingredients and expertise available. Through the years, our company has grown in accordance with certain core values and beliefs. We conduct our business ethically in a manner driven by our respect for our industry, our employees, our communities where we live and work and our environment. It is a recipe for success that has served us since 1889. Read more about McCormick's involvement in Science & the Community at the following links:

The JHU student chapter of AIChE will host "Career Night with McCormick: A Global Company" on Tuesday, December 1, at 6:30pm in Charles Commons, Salon A. There will be a presentation by an HR professional about McCormick, and then discussions led by some of their engineers about their careers, experience and paths to engineering management. One speaker is an engineering leader from the consumer products division of the company, the other from the industrial products division. McCormick will provide the food, and all majors and class years are invited to attend. For questions, please contact Eric Lam, President of AIChE/SBE, at eric.lam@jhu.edu.

The Career Center is pleased to announce Career and Internship Connections (CICs) 2010

Washington DC * Los Angeles, CA * New York, NY * Chicago, IL * Boston, MA

What is a CIC?

Career and Internship Connections are off-campus career and interview fairs scheduled during winter break, so you have the time to travel to the cities you might be interested in! There are a couple of different ways to navigate the fairs, the best and most proactive one is to register, upload your resume, and APPLY for positions by the November 30th deadline. You may then be selected for interviews by employers, select a time and be interviewed at the event.

INTERNSHIPS AND FULL-TIME JOBS

These innovative off-campus events allows students to network and interview with companies in New York, Washington DC, Chicago, Boston, Los Angeles. This is the 11th year of the consortium events (it includes 15 other schools). Last year's events boasted over 200+ employers in EVERY type of field.

Registering for the events early means you'll get updated information on the events, employers attending, and jobs posted. You can also create search agents to send you postings in particular cities and/or fields.

Visit <http://www.rochester.edu/careercenter/students/cic/index.html> and click on the registration tutorial for complete registration details. This year's PASSWORD TOKEN is "cic2010".

The deadline to apply for pre-screened interviews is November 30th.

To apply you need to:

1. Register online at <http://www.rochester.edu/careercenter/students/cic/index.html> ,
2. Upload a resume
3. Apply to specific postings and positions to submit your resume.

CIC 2010 DATES:

Washington, DC - January 4th
Los Angeles - January 5th
New York - January 6th
Chicago - January 7th
Boston – January 8th

Registration is now open. Visit <http://www.rochester.edu/careercenter/students/cic/index.html> and click on the cities to get the lists of companies registered thus far.

Alumni Greek Council Networking and Career Panel Event

There's no better way to begin your job or internship search than speaking with recent alums about what they're doing and how they got there. Take a break from studying to come to the Alumni Greek Council Career event on December 5 to speak with alumni in a variety of different industries. Stay tuned for more information after Thanksgiving Break.

The Institute of International Education is pleased to announce the inauguration of an exciting new program. The Freeman Indonesia Nonprofit Internship Program (FINIP), funded by the Freeman Foundation, aims to develop student leaders and strengthen the nonprofit sector in Indonesia. IIE will select and pair 10 Indonesian students pursuing U.S. degrees with 10 U.S. undergraduates and arrange internships for them to work together in an Indonesian nonprofit organization.

Interested American and Indonesian sophomores and juniors enrolled in U.S. institutions are encouraged to apply, using the online application at <http://www.iie.org/programs/finip> . The deadline for submission of completed applications is February 15, 2010.
