

HOT JOBS, COOL INTERNSHIPS NEWSLETTER

Engineering

April 17- April 24

To make sure that you're in the know about the job and internship opportunities that might interest you the most, the Career Center is re-designing its newsletter format. Instead of one master newsletter, we'll be sending out targeted newsletters based on three focus areas: Social Sciences and Humanities, Natural Sciences, and Engineering. You will be e-mailed the newsletter that's the best fit based on your major. We'll also be posting all three newsletters on our website at <http://www.jhu.edu/careers/students>.

HIGHLIGHTS:

The Baltimore Chapter of the American Marketing Association's 17th Annual Student Job Search Workshop

Sunday, April 26, 1 p.m. - 5 p.m.

Loyola College Graduate Center in Columbia, MD

Freshmen through seniors interested in careers in marketing/P.R./Communications/Advertising & Sports Marketing should attend this annual networking event sponsored by the Baltimore Chapter of the American Marketing Association. This is NOT a job fair; it is an opportunity to meet and learn from 20 marketing executives from major Baltimore firms—executives that you would normally not have access to—in a personal setting, through panel and small group discussions.

To Apply: Contact Leslie Kendrick at Kendrick@jhu.edu for the application form. Deadline: April 22, 2009

Teach For America's Employer Partnerships:

Helping Corps Members Effect Long-Term Change

Tuesday, April 21 @ 8pm EASTERN

<https://www1.gotomeeting.com/register/706136359>

Teach For America is hosting an online event to highlight our employer partnerships on Tuesday, 4/21. Teach For America's 15 employer partners—including Deloitte, Goldman Sachs, McKinsey, and Google—value the leadership skills and experience that distinguish Teach For America corps members. To read about the partnerships these organizations have built with our non-profit, see our website at http://www.teachforamerica.org/alumni/employer_partnerships.htm.

The event on the 21st is a great opportunity to hear the perspectives of Teach For America alumni Rex Farrand (NYC '06 & Goldman Sachs employee) & Jenny Tsai (NYC '07 & Google deferral), ask questions about their experiences, and get more details about pursuing a career path with both Teach For America and one of our employer partners. Just click the hyperlink below to register, and you can attend the event using any computer and any phone.
