MANNA PROJECT INTERNATIONAL

<http://www.mannaproject.org/Home.asp>

MPI seeks college students and recent college graduates to execute community development programs abroad. Members serve for thirteen months, volunteers work for any amount of time from a long weekend to multiple months. MPI directs its efforts towards communities in need: communities with inadequate access to basic education, healthcare, and recreational resources. MPI aims for a holistic approach to community development, working with people of all ages in various aspects of their lives. This broad approach enables those with diverse passions and skills to work together towards providing a targeted community with the resources to serve its specific needs. For example, to better serve the health-care needs of a targeted community, a holistic approach involves teaching health classes in the schools, providing access to clinics, and offering recreational activities that increase physical and mental health.

MICKEY LELAND INTERNATIONAL FELLOWS

Foundation for Sustainable Development

www.fsdinternational.org

Based in San Francisco, FSD is an international development organization that offers internships and volunteer opportunities with over 200 community-based, grassroots organizations throughout Latin America, East Africa and South Asia. Their programs focus on providing comprehensive development training, immersion, and the opportunity for students to design and implement collaborative projects with the help of a support staff and their host organization. Students have the opportunity to work in the following subject areas: micro-enterprise/microfinance, health environment, youth and education, women's empowerment, community development, and human rights.
