

Manager, Global Access
Plasma Protein Therapeutics Association

Biopharmaceutical trade association seeks a manager to assist in developing programs to ensure access to plasma protein therapies in matrix with the Senior Director, Global Access and the North America division. The manager will review scientific and health care publications and databases; perform analysis of data related to clinical outcomes, health technology assessments, comparative effectiveness models and similar health economic strategies; write papers for industry and peer-review journals; and participate in industry task force activities and other internal/external meetings. Successful candidate will have degree in science or economics with further studies in pharmacoeconomics, health economics or equivalent; at least three years experience with scientific research, review and writing; excellent interpersonal, written and oral communication skills; ability to manage databases. Experience in pharmaceutical industry helpful. Excellent benefits.

Send resume or C.V. and salary requirements to:
PPTA Human Resources
147 Old Solomon's Island Road, Suite 100
Annapolis, MD 21401
cizzi@pptaglobal.org

Visit: www.DonatingPlasma.org